Great Bordeaux Wines

We are a family house, established in Libourne for many years, specializing in the marketing of Bordeaux wines.

Coming from the Corrèze in 1898, Jean Janoueix buys from the Girondins Owners some barrels of their wines and goes to the North of France. Thanks to its tenacity, it is constituted over the years a large and faithful clientele. A few years later, his sons and his son-in-law follow suit. Among them, the youngest of the four brothers, Albert Janoueix, after having successfully crossed Normandy, buys a few parcels of vines, located on Pomerol and Saint-Émilion, so as to offer his own wines to his customers.

In 1973, Guy Janoueix takes charge of the family business, which he develops. In 1975, he acquired a Vineyard estate in Saint-Michel-de-Fronsac.

That's why today, following these acquisitions, Ets Guy Janoueix & Fils have the pleasure to offer you a wide range of products elaborated with care in their cellars that they distribute throughout France, either live either through Representatives.
